named in father's will

3. DEACON NATHANIEL² LAWRENCE (JOHN¹, HENRY^A, JOHN^B, JOHN^C, JOHN^D, ROBERT^E, JOHN^F, THOMAS^G, JOHN^H, NICHOLAS^I, ROBERT^J, ROBERT^K, JOHN^L, JOHN^M, JAMES^N, ROBERT^O, ROBERT^P)^{75,76} was born 15 Oct 1639 in Watertown, Middlesex, MA^{77,78,79}, and died 14 Apr 1724 in Lexington, Ma^{80,81}. He married (1) SARAH MORSE 13 Mar 1660/61 in Sudbury, Middlesex, MA⁸², daughter of JOSEPH MORSE and HANNAH PHILLIPS. She was born 16 Jul 1643⁸³, and died 29 Aug 1681^{84,85}. He married (2) HANNAH(ANNA)⁸⁶ Bef. 1683. She died Aft. 14 Jan 1700/01. He married (3) SARAH 31 Oct 1695⁸⁷.

Notes for DEACON NATHANIEL LAWRENCE:
According to Daughters of the American Colonists Lineage Book Vol1 page 365, Nathaniel Lawrence (1639-1724) was ensign of militia and member of the General Court, 1692. He died in Groton, Ma.

adm. freeman 15, May 1672

American Ancestry has death in Lexington and LDS has Stoneham.

Moved in advanced years to Charlestown Farms.

Nathaniel was an original proprietor of Groton having a ten-acre right. He held various offices in the church and town, and was one of the first representatives to the General Court, under the charter of William and Mary, in the year 1693. Three of his grandsons, Thomas, William and Amos, came from Lexington to Groton to live.

Notes for SARAH MORSE:
Her sister Elizabeth Morse married Nathaniel Lawrence's brother Peleg.

Children of NATHANIEL LAWRENCE and SARAH MORSE are:

- i. NATHANIEL³ LAWRENCE, b. 04 Apr 1661, Sudbury, Middlesex, MA⁸⁸; d. 1737; m. (1) HANNAH RUTTER, Abt. 1682, Sudbury, Middlesex, MA⁸⁹; m. (2) ANNA FISKE, Abt. 1689, Groton/Sudbury⁹⁰.

Notes for NATHANIEL LAWRENCE:

His father's will dated 4 Aug. 1718, proved 8 May 1724, gave Nathaniel land in Groton.

Mrs. Martha Lawrence
Winnebago, Illinois

Dear Aunt, Your very welcome letter came to hand about two weeks ago and found us well and hearty. Crabbed and cross have I been for a few days (cause toothache) but yesterday took the "cold iron remedy" and am again in a "normal state." Rufus's family are usually well. Lois Gillette (who was Oscar's widow but now married again) made us a visit about a week ago. She came here six weeks ago from her home in Iowa. We went out and saw her at her sisters the day after she came. She came sick so she was carried from the train on a bed. It seemed a swelling came on her arm about 6 inches from the shoulder on the under side. It grew to the size of an apple. The doctor out there after doctoring it for some time lanced it. Got no drip but grew worse so she started for home thinking she might get nearer a good doctor. She employed the best skill to be found here and as a result when she was here a week ago (after five weeks of treatment) she was comfortable and better. Yet she dressed it nights with bread and milk poultices as it yet pains her badly. She did not borrow any trouble as to the outcome but I fear for her as her mother died from a "cancerous nature." Lois started back Tuesday for her home that her uncle bought for her in the south west county in the state of Iowa. Lois is much changed for the better. She has lost that "braggy, domineering way." We wish her well and I think she has a good man. Her boy who came here in the spring returned with her. He is a large strong boy and just the picture of his father. Well Aunt, what can I write that will interest you? The season has been a good one yet grain and fruit is short of last year's crop. Potatoes (my crop, you know) are bringing double last year's prices 80cents to 65cents are about the prices. My crop are yielding fairly (especially late kinds). Wheat was a light crop- also oats. Buckwheat is good. There are thousands of bushels in this vicinity. Butter is bringing 23 cents by the crock at groceries- eggs the same. Neighborhood news are scarce. We attended church today at the Ridge-saw a few who had new bonnets and gowns but heard a good sermon. I think the smartest one I ever heard. Minister half Indian and is lecturing every week in the large cities but he can get there now, I'll tell you. News, Oh! Yes! I almost forgot almost our nearest neighbor and a grass widow has up and married an old, bald knock kneed veteran of 86 years old (But said to be wealthy) he says "I'm as young as ever, can whip Corbet" Lois said she had a letter not long ago from sister Jennie. She lives in Hutchinson, Kansas has married well. That is got a good home, a man of influence and well fixed yet in his seventies. I can not hear a word from Eunice from relatives on either side. The very last thing I heard from her was about 2 years ago she started saying she was going to Moscow, Russia. Well, I must bring this to a close as the family have gone to bed. Hoping this will find you well and contented now please sit down and write us again and all the news as I hear nothing from Michigan only through you. Write Nettie a letter. She is busy with cares (and her as well as our Idol=Katie) Nettie and Charlie will go to Cleveland to her sisters the present week or soon. Good bye write soon.

Yours Ever, D. A. Waite

Cure for deafness. Divide an onion, and from the centre take out a piece the size of a walnut; fill this cavity with a fresh quid of tobacco, & bind the onion together in its usual shape; roast it, then trim off the outer portion until you come to that part slightly colored or penetrated by the tobacco. Three drops of the oil dropped into the ear is said to have restored a person to hearing who had been deaf several years.

To cure a fall-eve on a horse take 2 drachms of quicksilver.

Elias Jackson, genealogical info:
08/30/2008

I have just heard from my contact for Revolutionary War data, Daryl VerStreate, Sons of the American Revolution, Rochester Chapter (N.Y.) After receiving information on Josiah Baldwins service record and grave site—Josiah and his wife Martha are both buried in the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Fort Byron, New York. He has forwarded, in addition, pictures of the grave stones for each. He has an ongoing project of visiting cemeteries which contain the remains of Revolutionary War Veterans and photographing the head stones. He says there are 10,000 veterans buried in a variety of cemeteries in New York alone. Some task I'd say.

Following a request from me to see if there is a record of Elias Jackson in his records. He sent the following statement of service for Elias:

Jackson, Elias, Ancestor Number A060980

Service: New York Rank: Private

Birth: 31 Dec 1753 New York

Death: (Post) 1801 Probably Ohio

Service Description:
Col. William B. Whiting's Regiment of the Militia

Spouse listed as Nancy Alexander

The DAR ID numbers for people inquiring about his children, they give the following info.

ID	Volume	Child/Spouse	Number/Spouse
112671	5	Archibald/	1. Amanda Olds
263119		Archibald/	1 Amanda Olds
358692	5	Betsy/	1 Bordon Brownell
358692		Betsy	1 Bordon Brownell
367025		Betsy	1 Bordon Brownell
385431	D	Betsy	1 Bordon Brownell

724483	D	Betsy	1	Bordon Brownell
731114	D	Betsy	1	Bordon Brownell

In addition, Daryl sent me a copy of the Voluntown Vital Records, 1708 – 1850

Those official records show that Elias Jackson and Agness Alexander were married 14 Sep 1780. Agness Alexander's birth date is given as 02 Feb 1760. The service of marriage was performed by the Rev. Solomon Morgan. Agness was the daughter of Joseph and Sarah Alexander.

There is a discrepancy in the year of Eliases birth. Dad's record indicated 31 Dec 1760, while his military record shows his birth as 31 Dec 1753. the birth, marriage and death of his wife is identical to the data Dad has. The listing of the DAR has Archibald, Eliases eighth child, married to Amanda Olds. Numerous entries for Betsy confirm my previous belief that she had married Bordon Brownell. (See Bownell in my Family tree site)

I will continue to explore the date= although it might be possible, since Agness (Nancy) was born in 1760, dad might have made a error in the year, and copied the 1760 from Nancy's birth date.

Eliases death listed as possibly Ohio, make sense. His eldest son, Alexander R. Jackson had moved to the Cleveland area. Unfortunately, the census before 1850 did not list names of all the people living under that head of household. Occupants were simply numbers placed in certain criteria, under 5, 5 – 10, etc. males or females.

I am 90% certain that Elias was born in New Concord, East Chatham, Columbia, New York. His first three children, Sarah (Sally), Betsy and Alexander R were born there. The remaining children were born in Voluntown, New London, Connecticut overwhelming evidence denies this claim. Shows that inferiors are often incorrect even though seemingly reasonable!

THE JACKSON/LAWRENCE DIARIES

Summaries Prepared by Edna A. Jackson

The first of the diaries belonging to John Alexander Jackson, dated 1862, contained some entry for everyday of the year. Being farmers, nearly every day started with the weather, then moved to the activities of the day, and health issues. Visiting relatives and/or neighbors were also commonly mentioned. While the diaries varied in size, the smallest is a 3 x 5 x ½ and the largest being 4 ¼ x 7 x 5/8 inches. All are leather bound and many in prime condition. Once the diaries became available, the difficulties found in reading the script entries became a major hurdle. In addition, the use of phonetic spelling, unfamiliar terminology dealing with farm life, and identifying names and surnames of relatives, friends and acquaintances often mentioned. The sample page from the 1862 diary and the attached page of Ms. Jackson's "Items of note" highlight these problems.

The little diaries carried a great deal of information regarding each day of the year. Many elements of an Almanac including lists of Sundays, population in U.S. and its principal cities, postage rates, interest and usury laws, Presidents of the United States, a cash account book, lunar and solar eclipses, moon phases, and in the 1862 diary, a remarkable events category. Here is the listing of events for June, 1862:

1. 6th Sunday after Easter
2. Riots in London, 1780.
3. Battle Buffalora, 1859
4. Battle Magenta, 1859
5. General Gaines d. 1849
6. Patrick Henry, d. 1799
7. Mahomet d. 632

March 9, 2003

Ruth A. Hoeper
7523 Grand Parkway
Wauwatosa, WI 53213

Dear Mrs. Hoeper:

Our sincere apologies for the extended delay in sending the enclosed photocopies to you.

Enclosed please find:

- * 2 pages from The History of Winnebago County, Ill., It's Past and Present, 1877.
- * 2 pages from the 1880 Federal Census, Winnebago Co., v. 1.
- * 4 pages from atlases of Winnebago County for the years 1871, 1886, and 1905.

Sorry, we don't have family folders in our collection for the names Lawrence and Jackson. I hope that the enclosed, though not as extensive as you hoped, will provide some new information for you.

Sincerely,

Jan Stokes
Local History and Genealogy Room

Bob, I wrote to this library in December, 02.

I hope the material is beneficial. The history pages tell what section your ancestors lived

The 1880 Census was first time each person was asked where they were born & where their father & mother born.

Have a joyous time looking over the past.
I have copies.

As ever, Ruth

EDNA ANNA HANSON JACKSON, Wife of Olin Jackson and mother of seven children
1895 – 1975

I have struggled to find the words to describe this “angel of God” who gave everything she had to her family. She was a rock for her husband and the loving mother of her children. I finally decided that the best thing I could do is to close this Jackson volume by giving you readers the challenge of finding words to describe her values and strengths by reading a story which she wrote, first as a speech given to the Minneapolis District Ministers wives in 1967 at the time of Olin’s retirement, and later placed in the book, Just Plain Folks. The story now follows.

THE FULL CYCLE

Edna A. Jackson

How does one approach a completed cycle of life as a minister’s wife? If by decades- the 20’s, - 30’s – 40’s – 50’s – 60’s, that sounds like forever and it really does not seem that long. So I choose a sort of rambling style, hoping that each of you will move along the stages as far as you can go, and re-live some of your own experiences. The details of each step are omitted in order to keep these 49 years within a short time limit. Think of each church as a community of Christian persons with longings, problems, striving and struggling through life.

There have been the “good guys” and the “bad guys” as the children of today say. This brings to mind a poem by Bishop Cushman in his book, “I have a Stewardship.”

THE GLORIOUS MINISTRY

There are people who carry life’s burdens,
Their own and some others beside.
There are people who stand in their places,
And stand there, whatever betide.

When the Kingdom is calling for workers,
Or the city is crying for men –
Or some cause is seeking supporters,
These people will answer just then.

You may know where to find them in darkness,
You may know where to find them by day.
And when the load presses down hardest,
You will find they are going your way.

There are two kinds of people – you know them,
As you journey along life’s track,
The people who take you strength from you,
And others, who put it all back.

The early years, beginning nearly fifty years ago, were called by some “The Flamboyant Twenties.” Maybe they were for some, but that particular spirit didn’t seem to touch our lives. The great World War had ended and the world was now “safe for democracy.” There was this charge with two tiny, weak churches, before seminary days. In this first parsonage without any modern conveniences except electricity, two baby daughters were born. Here we had our first taste of Turkey. The butcher had a few shipped in for Thanksgiving and during the night the rats had nibbled at some. We had a telephone call asking if we would accept one, without a leg, as a gift. Now, what was so bad about that? They come now with missing parts!

After three years the move was made to seminary, with canned goods and vegetables to last the winter, stacked in the end of a freight car. There were lonely times on the Charge, ninety miles from the seminary, but there were good friends who helped shovel snow and bring in coal, stored in an old piano box outside. The first son was born on a day the family moved to a better parsonage and church building, the former Congregational property. The father, conducting a funeral in the country comes home to a different parsonage and a first baby son!

A Seminarsians's dream in those days was an appointment to a county-seat town, so the move was made back to South Dakota. The furniture was shipped by freight with the family following in a second-hand Model T Ford and three small children. Here was a rambling old parsonage with a BATH ROOM, our first! Difficult school days were over and there was joy and hope for the future. Then drought struck the state and for nearly four years in the place, corn dried on the stalks year after year. The only bank in the town failed with one hundred dollars of our borrowed money. In a hospital thirty-five miles away another son was born. We now had the "ideal" family, two girls and two boys.

A move unexpectedly came to a College town, Brookings, South Dakota. There was a large church with professional men and farmers. In a pew in front on a Sunday often sat a PhD in Education with his family, and behind him a farmer who could neither read nor write. His wife signed all checks and legal papers. We enjoyed two visits from Bishops during these years, whom by the way, had North and South Dakota and Wisconsin in addition to Minnesota as their area.

In the eleven years in this lovely church and town, we were to live in a big roomy parsonage (the longest we ever stayed in one house). There was even a playroom for the children. Here was to be lots of joy – much sickness, and a death in the parsonage. A brown eyed son and a daughter were born. Here also the bright and handsome nine year old son, born during seminary days, died suddenly, after a family siege of flu, and a brief illness ending in meningitis. He lay in his father's parsonage study, while a brief funeral service was held on a stormy, bitter cold November day. The District Superintendent officiated. Burial was in Parker, South Dakota.

On a St. Patrick's Day following, another son was born and again there were three girls and three boys. The depression which had begun with bank failures was now on us. Drought and dust storms hit the state and community. Papers and rags were dampened and laid on windowsills to keep out the fine soil blowing off the farms. Noon-time was dark as midnight with blowing dust. Each Monday morning the Church treasurer stopped at the kitchen door with money which had to last the week.

It was a difficult time. There were differences of opinion then, as now. The pacifists opposing the ROTC at the college. Al Smith, a Catholic, running for president. There was the liquor fight and the struggle of the churches to keep Sunday movies out. Now, when one sees the long lines of children waiting to get in to most any Sunday movie, one wonders if the churches worked hard enough.

Clothes were hard to come by, and here a tribute should be given to both grandmothers, who came to help make over old clothing and some new.

One day three burly men came to the parsonage to tell the preacher to keep politics out of the pulpit or be run out of town. There were good times too, such as "Forum Dinner Meetings" at the college; the joy of working with young people in organizing a Wesley Foundation Chapter at the college. Perhaps we should have been analyzed for sanity, as it was here that the family journeyed to the big town, Sioux Falls, and purchased a piano. An old upright from a church sale was turned in on a seven and a half year old parlor grand piano. The old piano wouldn't hold its pitch anymore. Now with off-key singing it would have done very well! The "new" piano was purchased for $475.00 and paid for at the rate of $5 per month. For many years we kept the old receipt, "Paid in Full." Now when the little grandchildren want to do some harmless drumming, they surely must think that grandma is an old fussy woman!

Joyce Memorial church in Minneapolis—a different church in another Conference and state is the next home for nearly 12 years. Glorious years they were with the family together. In each church we were given a loving welcome and there was always a host of friends to meet us. Here we were known as the "Jackson Eight!" There was no parsonage so we lived five years in a big pleasant rented house which took $55.00 each month out of our $3,800 salary. Finally this place was sold and we moved to a smaller home owned by one of our parishioners. Beautiful homes were sold for $7,500 in those days but the church had no money and no credit with which to buy. Family life and activities were church centered except for memberships in four P.T.A.'s! There were two Missionary Societies, Home and Foreign, and a Ladies Aid. The last year of the Foreign Missionary Society, to pay the final $100, we had Governor Harold Stassen come to speak and thus raised the money.

When it came time to move again from the rented house, the church purchased a lovely big roomy parsonage, and here our own and other young people of the church often gathered. On May 6, 1943 the church burned. Walls were left standing but the structure was gutted.

War broke out again and this time to save the world from Hitler and Naziism. Hitler, as a student wrote on a test paper was that "jerk" in Europe. Our eighteen-year-old son was drafted as he finished high school, with other church youth. On a bitter cold January 1st we sent him off to war by plane. In France the boys were sent off directly to the front lines as replacements. Then came the telegram from the War Department telling of wounds received in action. There was a trip home aboard a hospital ship and thirteen months in Bushnell General Hospital in Utah. Parents were advised not to come to military hospitals. The sons of many of our dear friends never came back. The gold stars on our church Service Flag became numerous and our hearts ached for our people. They said the war ended in a victory. It had made prosperity for many.

While at Joyce Memorial church, two daughters graduated from Hamline University and later were married.

Rochester, the health center of the world, was our pleasant home for six years. Those were years of great change in church and community. It was exciting to meet people who came from far places. Some found health and others did not, but there was compassion for all. As the city grew, so grew the church, and prospered. Knowlton's old General Store was sold and Dayton's built a new one on the site. The parsonage was sold and moved out and we moved to a luxurious home on "Pill Hill." There were three bathrooms and a half bath in a walk-out basement. While here three more children finished Hamline and one son goes to Seminary. The last daughter is married. The Church and site were sold to the Clinic. At the opening of the new Methodist Hospital in 1966, we sat in the lovely lobby about where the old front porch used to be.

On a hot July day with just one son left to go along, reluctantly, Duluth became our next home. There we spent six years with fifty-four churches of the North East District. There was a trip to Evanston for the wedding of the son in Seminary and the last son goes off to Dunwoody Institute, where he is now teaching. There were to be months of Army service for him in West Berlin, but before he leaves, he is married.

There was tragedy and heart-ache on the District too. Depression hit the Iron Range, and there were strikes. There were problems to face in getting men who were willing to fill some of these lonely pastorates. A ridiculous problem in one Quarterly Conference was how to get the skunks out from under the church! There were glorious rides along the North Shore, through the Iron Range and the Superior National Forest. The fellowship with the ministers and their families who were so kind to us, and the joys of Cabinet friendships and close association with Bishops Coors and Nall can never be forgotten. Through all the years there have been six bishops and nineteen District Superintendents.

As retirement looms we think back on the "growing-up" years of measles, chicken pox, whooping cough and endless broken bones, shoulder blades, knees, ankles and two backs from toboggan accidents, plus a surgery thrown in for good measure. There were four trips to Jurisdictional Conferences, where one learns that Bishops elections are quite a political matter. There were three General Conferences of the Methodist church, where one feels a great surge of pride for our wonderful church in spite of its faults.

Now, even with dyes and hormones, the stairs get steeper, the print gets smaller, and those round you seem to be mumbling in lower tones. The weather, too, seems to be changing- winters are longer and colder, snow is heavier and summer is hotter. Food seems to be more fattening and you step up to the mirror and it seems they do not use the same kind of glass anymore!

Before that last day at Annual Conference when the retired are given a last chance to speak, you better know where your next step will be. You are on your own. The church lets you go. The choice is up to you to find a stone rambler or a modest cottage. The door of the big comfortable District parsonage, home for six years, closes. You walk into a little home that is yours, - or will be when the mortgage is paid- and you pray, "Bless this home, O Lord, we pray, - keep it safe by night and day." There is never a meeting of the parsonage committee, you don't even have one. You want to change the décor? Just get busy and do it and pay for it yourself. New drapes, carpet , or water heater needed? Just go out and buy them.

You try to think too hard of those years of active work, this you want to forget. You are now free to do as you wish. You choose or control your involvements in the church and the outside world. There is an occasional trip down town and you wander through the department of beautiful furniture, with new exotic woods, and wish in a wistful way that you could discard the old lamps and chairs and begin with new. You come home from that wearying trip and find peace and quiet and the "one" is waiting for you and you are content. You have survived the hectic and blessed years of raising and educating children and now can enjoy thirteen grandchildren, aged 6 months to one newly married. That son who brought home pink slips from High School is now an Associate Professor of mathematics at the University of Minnesota with a PhD degree. The little boy who never had a rocking horse he wanted so badly, finishes his education with a PhD in the Philosophy of Religion, and is following in his father's footsteps, and rides in a Young-mobile by Olds. The little boy who loved his toy cars now has a garage big enough to hold four real cars of his own. The Jackson's are in five churches working on Official Boards, Sunday school, and Woman's Society. There are three grandchildren in college.

Another six years have passed since that day of retirement, and a small rural church now suburban has been served for good measure. It seems the years have gone by so fast! There is another War and a time of affluence. Our youth are dying in Viet Nam by the thousands. Other youth are rebelling against the affluence of parents. There are riots in the streets of the cities. The message of the church is needed even more than in those early years.

The friends we made in churches are not forgotten. Many have joined those "countless Hosts of White around the Father's throne" of which John writes in Revelations. In Thornton Wilder's play, "Our Town" Emily, whose short life ends as she dies in child-birth, is allowed to return to earth to re-live her twelfth birthday. For the first time she sees her father and mother in their simple goodness and love for her. Unable to bear her loneliness she calls out, "It goes so fast. We don't have time to look at one another. Take me back up the hill. But wait, one more look.- goodbye to clocks ticking, and momma's sun flowers, and new ironed dresses and hot baths- to sleeping and waking up. Oh earth, you are too wonderful for anyone to realize you. Do humans ever realize life while they have it every, every minute?" And Frank Craven, the stage manager answers, "NO!"

When you retire you feel how fast life goes- how really you don't take time to know one another- to appreciate the wind and the rain as well as the sunshine – to accept disappointments and defeats with grace, since these make the achievements and victories count.

Chapter 6, Part A.
Some Notes on the Sons and Several Grandsons of Robert Jackson I

These notes are largely drawn from the research of Mr. Edwin Fellows in his article on the Jackson's of Voluntown. Some additional comments from other sources are noted.

THEOPHILUS JACKSON, Son of Robert Jackson I

Theophilus was born in Voluntown, Connecticut on 17 Jun 1722. He married Else (Alice) Stranahan on 09 Oct 1746. The Reverend Samuel Dorrance performed the ceremony in Voluntown. (Connecticut Vital Records, Vol. 1, pp 11, 43; Fellows, The Jackson's of Voluntown; The Barbour Collection; Greenough Genealogy)

Else was the daughter of James Stranahan who was born in Northern Ireland in 1699. In 1745, seven important church members departed from the communion and set up private worship on the Sabbath. When cited before the pastor and elders to answer for their "breach of the covenant" they said, "that the session had no right to determine such matters." These seven, and an additional seven were formally cut off from the church. Else's father, James Stranahan, was one of the seven. An additional seven were removed from church membership. Our Robert Jackson was not on the list but no doubt supported those who were removed. The "new" church was called Nazareth Church. (Larned, E. History of Windham County, Vol 1, p. 383.) The formation of Nazareth Church was designed to liberalize the members religious beliefs and allowing others to preach the gospel. Thus it was moving from the Presbyterian covenant to that of the first church in Voluntown, the Congregational Church. A Rev. Morgan was eventually hired as pastor. Rev. Morgan conducted the marriage ceremony for Elias and Nancy Jackson.

Theophilus and Else had the following children:

Olive Jackson, b. 13 Feb 1749, d. 02 Jan 1841 in Athens, Greene County, New York

Anna Jackson, b. 1750, Voluntown

Theophilus Jackson, Jr., 02 May 1753

Jacob Jackson, b. 06 Apr 1755, Voluntown

Isabel Jackson b. 13 Jul 1747, d. 10 Feb 1829

Rhoda Jackson

The births of Isabel and Rhoda are not listed in the Barbour Collection or noted in the Connecticut Vital Records. Theophilus Sr. and family moved from Voluntown to Canaan, Columbia County about 1758. A Theophilus Jackson served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Albany's 17th Regiment under Capt. William Whiting. It is not known whether it was the son or the father.

THEOPHILUS JACKSON, JR. Son of Theophilus Jackson, first cousin of Elias Jackson

Like his father, Theophilus Jr. lived in Canaan and owned property. By 1800 he had moved to Warren, Herkimer County, New York. Fellows stated that he died in Canesus, Livingston County, New York at the age of 93.

ARCHIBALD JACKSON, Son of Robert Jackson II, and brother of Elias Jackson

Archibald was born 24 Apr 1758 in Voluntown, Connecticut. He enlisted in the army (militia) at Greenwich, Rhode Island, at about the same time as Elias joined the militia. Following his service, he apparently fathered a child with a Mary Bates. The child was named Freeloove Jackson, born Jun 1788, Voluntown. She married 01 Apr 1804 in Voluntown. Her husband was Gideon Tanner of Hopkinton, Rhode Island. She died 26 Jan 1824. The record showed that Archibald help support her during her growing years.

Archibald subsequently moved to Hudson, Columbia County, New York. In filing for a military pension he states that he lived in Hudson for the past fifty years and refers to a Mary Larabee, 3 years younger, as a member of the family. His name appears in the 1790 census of Canaan, Columbia County, near Samuel, Jacob and Theophilus Jackson. No other persons in the household are listed in Canaan in 1800, 1810, 1820 and 1830.

Apparently his troubles from Voluntown continued in Canaan. Fellows found a court case at Albany Circuit court, 17 Oct 1805. Archibald married a Nancy Jackson in Canaan 21 Sep 1800. They lived together until the winter of 1802 when Nancy went to Vermont and obtained a divorce on the grounds of ill treatment and severe temper. She then returned to New York State. When she brought action for alimony, the court ruled that the divorce was not valid in New York.

Archibald was described as "miserably poor and unfortunate." (Fellows, Edwin, The Jackson's of Voluntown, Sep. 1998, The Connecticut Nutmegger).

ROBERT JACKSON III, Son of Robert Jackson II, brother of Elias Jackson

This Robert Jackson was certainly the "traveler" of the early Jacksons. He was born on the 22 Aug 1762 in Voluntown, and was also involved with the military during the Revolutionary War. His Pension application file gives the date and place of birth and refers to his brother, Elias. After his service, he, like others in the Jackson family shifted to Canaan, Columbia County, NY in 1783. Here he married Maria Bonensteel who gave birth to a son, Jacob, born in Claverack in 1784. Later, he married Hanna (Maria Annetja) Gaul and had the following children; William, Maria, William Jacob, Anna, Elias, and Martha, all were baptized at Claverack Reformed Church between 1805 and 1815. In 1797, Robert was in Schuyler, Herkimer County, New York. From there, in 1816, he settled in Victor, Ontario County, New York. In 1819 his residence was Canandaigua, and then to Monroe County, New York in 1824. Apparently his last stop was in Perinton, Monroe County, in 1840, at the age of 79. He is reported to also have married Sally Ellis who died in Victor on 30 Oct 1817, at the age of 50. (Fellows, Edwin, The Jackson's of Voluntown, Sep 1998, The Connecticut Nutmegger).

Dear Mr. Jackson;

In response to your inquiry of Porter Lawrence's birth, no such document will exist in any portion of New York State. NEW YORK STATE DID NOT REQUIRE BIRTH, DEATH OR MARRIAGE RECORDS UNTIL 1847, '48 & '49. The state then stopped any such records until 1882 and even then some communities did not respond until 1900.

Newspapers of the day did not put birth announcements unless paid for by the parent.

I then proceeded to look for a church Baptismal record. I found that John Lawrence was a Baptist and thus stops any record of Porter's birth. BAPTISTS DO NOT BAPTIZE INFANTS. When a child reaches the age of consent in the church at age 13 or 14 the child can then be baptized. I found the family record in the SCOT, N.Y. BAPTIST CHURCH (see enclosed).

I have also enclosed a copy of a "Lawrence Family in Scott" paper that was in our "Lawrence" file folder. I don't know who wrote or donated it to the Society.

I then looked at our copy of Bible Records hoping that we could have had a "Lawrence or Stanton Bible sheet but no luck. Perhaps someone in your family or the Mormon Church Records or DAR or SAR may have such a document.

Thank you for your $10.00 enclosed money order. I am sorry that we couldn't have the info you requested. - I am even at a loss where such a record of a birth date could be found.

Good luck and I would appreciate any additional info on the Lawrence family which you would care to share.

Sincerely,
Quita H. Whitford
Research Associate.

Notes on John Alexander Jackson, my great grandfather.

John left numerous diaries to his wife Camilla Lawrence Jackson. Scantling much of the daily life of a young man on the farm in the mid-1850's in Illinois. After John's death, Camilla came to Rockford to live with her daughter Eliza. Upon Camilla's death, the diaries were left in the care of the Mission House, especially wary to protect them. When Eliza died in 1940, having changed everything her own, her nephew and my father acted to preserve them. Among these items preserved were the boxes of diaries written by his father-in-law Porter Lawrence. The earliest of these diaries was from 1862 when John was 18 years old. The last diary was from 1867 more than a lifetime description of each day's activities. It became John's nearest book, keeping careful financial records.

Indian Cure for Deafness
Westfield May 27th 1857

I have recently read the 1862 diary which was very interesting and helpful. It was written with whom he had dealings. My father, Daniel B. Jackson, was John was usually ill and was physically unable to handle the rigors of farm life.

Many days John's entry mentioned his father's illness.

Cure for deafness. Divide an onion, and from the center take out a piece the size of a walnut; fill this cavity with a fresh quid of tobacco, & bind the onion together in its usual shape; roast it, then trim off the outer portion until you come to that part slightly colored or penetrated by the tobacco. Three drops of the oil dropped into the ear is said to have restored a person to hearing who had been deaf several years.

28 Mar 1862. "Went out to Mr. Snow's. I took father up to Mr. Snow's to see him. He was very ill and died all night. I went down in the evening."

29 Mar 1862. "I went down to Rockford to see Mr. Snow's."

30 Mar 1862. "Worked on the day (door) to the back door. I went to see Mr. Snow's for father."

31 Apr 1862. "Worked all day. I went to the station after Grandfather. Alexander R. Jackson, age 77 at this time, Asahel's father. I went to Mr. Granger's after grass seed."

14 Apr 1862. "Worked hard most of the day. Mr. Kilder came here and sat up with father."

19 Apr 1862. "Pleasant. Mr. McChesney came to see father. Went to Mrs. Searles. William and I went to the station with a letter."

23 May 1862. "Very pleasant. Father died at eight o'clock and 10 minutes. Mr. and Mrs. Smith sat up here last night."

04 May 1862. "Pleasant. Last week I packed. Got a coffin for father. I finished setting out the trees."

Notes on John Alexander Jackson, my great grandfather.

John left numerous diaries to his wife Camilla Lawrence Jackson, detailing much of the daily life of a young man on the farm in the mid-1800's in Illinois. After John's death, Camilla came to Rockford to live with her daughter, Elva. Upon Camilla's death, the diaries were left in the attic of the Miriam St. house, packed carefully away to protect them. When Elva died in 1940, having no living children surviving her, Olin, her nephew and my father settled the estate on Elva. Among those items preserved were the boxes of diaries written by John, and his father-in-law Porter Lawrence. The earliest of these diaries, now in my possession, was 1862 when John was 18 years old. His diaries became much more than a routine description of each day's activities. They also became John's account book, keeping careful financial records of all his dealings.

I have recently reread the 1862 diary which contains many names of friends and neighbors with whom he had dealings. John's father, Asahel Hyde Jackson, became extremely ill and was physically unable to handle the rigors of farm life. Many days John's entry mentioned his father's illness:

- 27 Feb 1862, "went to Rockford. Got some medicine for Father and got boot. Then went after the girls."
- 05 Mar 1862, "Warm. I went to Rockford after medicine for Pa. Afterwards went to the station and got some ctanberries for Father."
- 06 Mar 1862, "Went to the station in the forenoon after molasses for Pa. Cleaned the pig pen in the afternoon."
- 16 Mar 1862, "Very warm. Went to Rockford after medicine for Father."
- 22 Mar 1862, "Pleasant. Went to Mr. Ponds. I got him to come and see Father. Went to Searles in the evenng."
- 26 Mar 1862, "Pa's nose bled. Isaac went after Mr. Ponds. We commenced to drag."
- 28 Mar 1862. "Isaac went to Mr. Straws. I took father up to Mr. Bissell's. Phoebe went to Searles and staid all night. I went down in The evening."
- 29 Mar 1862, "I went down to Rockford to see the doctor."
- 30 Mar 1862, "Worked on the dore (door) to the backhouse. I went to see Mr. Ponds for father."
- 07 Apr 1862, "Rained all day. I went to the station after Grandfather. (Alexander R. Jackson, age 77 at this time; Asahel's Father.) I went to Mr. Grippen's after grass seed."
- 14 Apr 1862, "Rained hard most of the day. Mr. Kidder came here and sat up with Father."
- 19 Apr 1862, "Pleasant. Mr. McGuire came to see Father. Went to Mrs. Searles. William and I went to the station with a letter."
- 03 May 1862, "Very plesant. Father died at eight o'clock and 10 minutes. Mr and Mrs. Dublin sat up here last night."
- 04 May 1862, "Pleasant. Isaac took wheat to Rockford. Got a coffin for Father. I finished setting out the trees."

05 May 1862, "Very warm. Tom plowed in the morning. We went and dug the grave. Susannah (Stanton Lawrence) came from the East tonight."

06 May 1862, "Very warm. Isaac went to Rockford after medicine. Father was buried age 53 on the 29th of July."

Since the script writing of the time is sometimes very difficult to follow, I have tried to create a printed version of the complete diary to be included here. Some words that were not decipherable are shown by dashes. This is also true of unfamiliar names of people. It appears to have been a pretty difficult time for a 19 year old lad.

NOTE: The 1870 Census taken for Winnebago, Illinois lists the family of Isaac Mills Jackson, age 36, occupation a harness maker. The census taker lists Isaac's family as the 131 family visited. The 132 family visited was Alanson Savage, most obviously the next home visited. Alanson Savage, age 76, occupation a carpenter. Six dependents living in the home, Aurelia, age 50, keeping house, Tyler S., son, boot and shoemaker, age 37, Adeline, age 30, keeping house, Fannie A., age 17, Minnie, age 10, and Bertie, (male) age 4.

Of particular interest to our family is that fact that George W. Jackson, younger brother of Isaac and John and son of Asahel and Phoebe, married Fannie Savage. I have not yet found their marriage date but it must have occurred between the 1870 and 1880 census. Olin Jackson lists three children of that marriage, Fred, Aneta and Addie.

Orlin was a preacher, and grandson of a Methodist preacher, was born by strange coincidence in the same village as his father and his grandfather, namely, Winnebago, Illinois, on October 2, 1923. (This was also the birthdate of his grandfather Hanson).

He was named by combining his grandfather's name, Olin, with his father's name, Olin. He was the last baby baptized by his grandfather before the latter's death on August 28, 1924. This service was significantly held in the old church where his grandparents attended in their youth and of which his father was then the pastor.

Orlin was four years old when the family moved to Brookings, South Dakota. Here he began his school life and here he formed all those little friendships which compose a boy's life.

Notwithstanding his paternal heritage, he was very like his mother in every way. His had a quiet disposition. Often times he preferred a quiet corner with a book to the more active play of his companions. He was especially helpful and attentive to his baby sister.

He was taken ill on Saturday, November 5th, but no alarm was felt for his condition until 24 hours before his death, as others in the family were

Orlin Burton Jackson

Born October 2, 1923, at Winnebago, Illinois

Baptized June 22, 1924, Winnebago, Illinois, by his grandfather, Reverend Orin Porter Jackson

Died November 11, 1932, Brookings, South Dakota, buried at Parker, South Dakota

The Jackson Family Record was initiated by Olin DeBuhr Jackson on July 5, 1932, just four months before the death of Orlin. On page 11 of that record, Olin, Orlin's father, entered the following statement:

"Orlin Burton Jackson, son of a Methodist preacher, and grandson of a Methodist preacher, was born by strange coincidence in the same village as his father and his grandfather, namely, Winnebago, Illinois, on October 2, 1923. (This was also the birthdate of his grandfather Hanson).

He was named by combining his grandfather's name, Orin, with his father's name, Olin. He was the last baby baptized by his grandfather before the latter's death on August 28, 1924. This service was significantly held in the old church where his grandparents attended in their youth and of which his father was then the pastor.

Orlin was four years old when the family moved to Brookings, South Dakota. Here he began his school life and here he formed all those little friendships which compose a boy's life.

Notwithstanding his paternal heritage, he was very like his mother in every way. His had a quiet disposition. Often times he preferred a quiet corner with a book to the more active play of his companions. He was especially helpful and attentive to his baby sister.

He was taken ill on Saturday, November 5th, but no alarm was felt for his condition until 24 hours before his death, as others in the family were similarly afflicted. He was taken to the hospital on Thursday for treatments, but in spite of the utmost doctors and nurses could do he slipped away to be with God at three o'clock Friday morning, November 11, 1932, age 9 years, 1 month, 9 days. The rest of the family circle of mother, father, three sisters and one brother must carry on without him.

Funeral services were conducted from the Brookings parsonage Monday forenoon, November 14th. Dr. C. E. Wilcox, District Superintendent, was in charge and brought words of comfort. Reverend E. F. Kurtz of Arlington read from the scriptures and the Reverend A. M. Clarke, President of the Brookings Ministerial Association and the Reverend F. E. Lockridge of Huron offered prayers. Mr. Fred Whitehead sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" and four other choir young men acted as Pall Bearers. (Richard and Robert Burris, Stanley Atkinson and Don Schmidt)

The body was taken to Parker for burial in the DeBuhr family lot. He was laid to rest at the feet of his grandfather Jackson. Rev. J. S. Kerr of Parker and Rev. W. E. Hartung of Salem (South Dakota) assisted in the service at the cemetery.
